WHAT: The Maryland Public Secondary School's Athletic Association (MPSSAA) has opened up the 2010 Girl's Golf Challenge Clinic to eighth grade middle school students. Eighth grade female students may only take part in the clinic portion of the Girl's Golf Challenge to be held at Forest Park Golf Course on October 16th. Registration is on a first come, first served basis and is open to the first 50 registrants.

The clinic will begin at 2:00 pm with Forest Park's PGA Professional Tim Sanders working with small groups of golfers on full swing technique, pitching, chipping and putting. Sessions will culminate with competitive "Skills Challenges" where prizes will be presented.

WHEN & WHERE: The clinic portion of this event is scheduled for Saturday, October 16th at Forest Park Golf Course in Baltimore, MD beginning at 2:00 p.m. The golf course is located at 2900 Hillsdale Road, Baltimore 21207 and the parking lot is across the street from the clubhouse. For additional golf course information and directions, please go to www.bmgcgolf.com and click on "Forest Park".

WHO: The clinic portion of this event is open to any high school female who is currently a bona fide member of a Maryland public high school golf team or a female eighth grade student currently enrolled at a bona fide Maryland public middle school. Eighth graders must be accompanied by a guardian in order to participate that day. All golfers shall bring a bagged set of clubs to use. Space is limited to a maximum of 50 students on a first come, first served basis.
