

QUIZ #1 2024

1. An intentional foul can be the following:

- A. Personal Foul.
- B. Technical Foul.
- C. Both A& B

2. A1 intentionally fouls B1 on a live ball. This is a personal foul and B1 will receive two free throws and the ball at one of the “4” spots if it occurs in the front court. T-F

3. Fans from the visiting team are using artificial noisemakers during an opponent’s attempted free throw. The officials should notify game management and have a public address announcement made, stating that the use of artificial noisemakers are prohibited at all times. T-F

4. Team B is in the bonus. A3 goes over a screen and fouls B4. After the play, A3 screams at the official and pushes B5. After a technical foul is called on A3, A3 runs at the calling official again and screams at the official. Handle the Situation?

5. The following are characteristics of a flagrant foul:

- A. Fighting
- B. May or may not be intentional.
- C. Can be a personal or technical foul.
- D. Can be a technical non-contact foul which displays unacceptable conduct.
- E. All of the Above.

Answers:

- 1. C-4-19-3.
- 2. True- 7-5-3-a, 10-Penalty-4.
- 3. True- 1-18.
- 4. This is a false multiple foul. B4 will shoot two free throws, followed by Team B shooting 4 free throws and A3 is disqualified. 4-19-12, 8-6-2.
- 5. E- 4-19-4.

Teaching Points:

- 1. Master Definitions.
- 2. Master Penalties.
- 3. Be ready for the unexpected.
- 4. If you permit unsporting conduct, you promote it.
- 5. Have Excellent Crew Dynamics.