

NFHS Edition #7

1. Team A has a throw-in that is in their front court. Thrower-In A1 throws the ball to airborne A2 who catches the pass after alighting from the frontcourt and throws the ball to A3 in the back court. This is a legal play. T-F
2. A1 is performing a throw-in that is in the front court, A1 throws the ball to airborne A2 who is in the front court, A2 lands in the back court. The trail official rules a back court violation. T-F.
3. A1 is dribbling the ball in their front court, B1 deflects the ball off of A1's knee. The ball goes into the back court. A3 recovers the ball in the back court. The trail official "no calls" the play. T-F
4. To have a back court violation a team must be in team control. T-F
5. A back court violation will be taken out of bounds by the opposing team at the division line. T-F

Answers:

1. False- CB-9.9.1 Situation-E.
2. False- 9-9-3.
3. False-9-9-1.
4. True-9-9-1.
5. False-9-9-Penalty.