

Quiz #1

1. During play, a defender is standing 1 yard inside the circle. Trying to clear the ball, she scoops the ball into an attack player standing 1 yard outside the circle, hitting her in the thigh. How should the game proceed?
2. On a free hit, the player taking the hit touches the ball but does not move it. The coach of the opposing team yells out, "She touched it! Run in!" What should the umpire do?
3. Playing out a penalty corner at the end of the second quarter, the ball travels 2 yards outside the circle. As the attack plays the ball, it remains outside the circle and inadvertently hits the foot of an oncoming defender. What should the umpire call?
4. A player comes onto the field at halftime and verbally abuses the umpires. Who should get the card?
5. On a penalty corner, the first shot on goal is a flick stopped by the defending team. An attack player comes in hits the ball into the goal. There is no danger to players, but the ball enters the cage waist high.
