

Academically Jessica carries a 4.517 weighted GPA and is valedictorian at Northeast high school in Anne Arundel Co. She is a Maryland distinguished scholar, a United State Achievement Academy National scholar, a member of both the National Honor Society and the Spanish National Honor Society, a superintendent, principal and national honor roll recipient, and was selected as a Capital Gazette academic all star.

On the playing field, Jessica was a four year varsity letter winner in soccer and captained the team both her junior and senior years. She was a four year selection to the 1st team all county and this year was a Maryland all state defender. She was chosen by the NSCAA as an all south region scholar athlete and she was just notified that she was also selected to the NSCAA/adidas high school scholar all America team. She holds the school record in the pole vault, and last year was an honorable-mention all county lacrosse player. This year she is the captain of the lacrosse team.

Jessica will be attending Cornell University in the fall and playing on the varsity soccer team.
